

IN LOGAN COUNTY.

A Wonderful Territory Now Undergoing Development.

GREAT LUMBER AND COAL REGION

Opening Up on the Norfolk & Western Road—A War Reminiscence—The Land of the Hatfield-McCoy Feud. Now Living at Peace—Corn Mill that Would Surprise Wheeling Millers.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

WHITE'S SAW MILL, BEECH CREEK, LOGAN COUNTY, W. VA., July 22.—Few people of the State know the extent of Logan county, either in territory or hidden and undeveloped minerals and magnificent forests of poplar, oak and other valuable woods.

The writer is engaged in getting ties for the Norfolk & Western railroad company, a new road graded from the Ohio river at Kenova to Elkhorn, in McDowell county, 200 miles. The grading is not completed yet, nor the Hatfield and McCoy tunnels finished, but all can be before the track layers reach them, who are laying from each end of the road. The east end is several miles below the mouth of Elkhorn creek, and the west end several miles east of Wayne Court House, and goes steadily on. No road ever built in West Virginia will make such a change in the mode of doing business, of living and society, as this one will. The Hatfield and McCoy feuds will disappear, the ill-fated stills of the mountains of our State will be seen no more; the pushboat will go with the river rats and flour will take the place of Indian meal. School houses and churches will take the place of the bear hunt, and the many hours idled away by both young and old during all seasons of the year.

A WAR STORY.
The writer met here last week two men who were with Jones' raid on Fairmont and Morgantown in April, 1888, and one man, now old and decrepit, who was the identical man who captured him in that engagement. James Clark was the man and his eyes sparkled when he remembered the three fine horses that he "captured" on that raid.

He says a few miles from Fairmont they "pursued" a man who was giving his native town the bounce, to climb down off of one of the finest horses gathered in during the trip.

Fishing is great up here. Tug river can not be excelled for its fish by any stream in the State, its no uncommon, but a daily occurrence, almost, to see twenty to forty pound cat, one and one-half to three and one-half pound bass, and other mountain stream fish of best variety.

A COAL DISCOVERY.
A new vein of coal, about 1,800 to 2,400 acres, has been found on Grapevine branch, that puts in Peter creek on the Kentucky side. This coal is high up in the mountain and is very fine; is just now being opened and part of it purchased. It is thought to be a part of the McDowell coal that in some places is cut entirely in two, and disappears for miles. The agents of the Norfolk & Western have an eye on all the area, I believe, and added to their great holdings more than one of the future coal kings of America.

My mills are on Beech creek, or near the mouth of the same, and fifty men and teams are employed, all within one to five miles of all of the Hatfield and McCoy strife, and no one would for a moment believe that the blood-curdling stories of murder and arson that fill the newspapers of the day have this community for the basis of all sensational news of this part of the State.

IT IS ALL PAST.
It is true that a dozen men have been killed within six miles, but that is past, and the Hatfields have left Tug river and moved back in the country 20 miles, and the McCoy's have moved back into Kentucky. Six of my men from Mannington, Dan Stevens and five others, stopped at a man's house for dinner on the way here last week, and when they learned that their host was no other than Captain Hatfield, the short hair on Mayfield's head stood straight up, and when half an hour later "Bad Ans" put in an appearance Silas Stevens' red head became very hot and his complexion partook of the hue of an evening sunset. But all the boys soon discovered that they were really among peaceable people, who would make no charge for their dinner and who are doing what they can to retrieve the bad name that has heretofore attached to them. The writer has purchased a good deal of poplar from Bad Ans' boys and relatives and feels perfectly secure in the enjoyment of the rights conveyed.

A PINE COUNTRY.
The weather is very hot here and the corn very large and good. That is the only crop, save a few potatoes and beans, grown here, and the little mountain mills that grind the corn, make the finest meal in America.

Speaking of mills, I take it that when Julius Pollock, of your large city mills, reads this, and of course he will, he may demur to the statement regarding the making of better meal in Logan county with a mountain mill, the top runner not over sixteen inches in diameter and about eight inches thick, fastened to a "penstock" with steel on the top end of it and the bottom setting on an iron plate with half inverted wings for the water to strike as it shoots down a spout into or against these wings, and the whole house only 8x10 feet, built out of logs, six feet high, and none of the holes closed up, grinding from five to ten bushels in fifteen hours—all perfectly cool, and as white as flour. I say Pollock may demur to this, but then a trip out here will convince him, as it has me. It is the daily diet for hundreds of people here, twenty miles back in Kentucky and twenty miles or more back in West Virginia.

It is, W.
Showed His Shape.
OCEAN GROVE, N. J., July 27.—The first arrest under the new enforcement of the bathing law, which has been creating such a stir, took place this morning. C. G. Gernard, of Philadelphia, went down to Ross pavilion to bathe. To avoid dressing and undressing at a bathhouse he arranged his toilet at his cottage. It was a middleweight pair of knickerbockers and a flesh-colored gause shirt, which exhibited to advantage his shape. He was encased in an ulster overcoat and taken to police headquarters. He was entering the lockup when Chief Patterson gave him a hearing. He was fined $5. Those who have been loud declaimers against the new regulations are again showering their anathemas upon the head of President Stokes, who says that everybody must stop parading the streets in objectionable bathing costumes.

CHINESE DISTURBANCES.

The Pig Tails Looting—the Homes and Chapels of Missionaries—Danger to Foreigners in Canton.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Advises just received from China give particulars of fresh depredations by the Chinese against the missionaries. The latest attack was made at Yankow on June 29, when the Catholic mission was methodically looted, the crowd passing things from hand to hand in a chain. The buildings were afterward set on fire. A few days previous, four chapels were destroyed in Kiangsi, near the city of Fuchow. The chapel, school and residence of the priest were looted and burned on June 26. The same day some predatory bands completely destroyed a French orphanage at a place called Haimen. In addition to the destruction of the orphanage, eight or nine of the wretched little children cared for in the orphanage were carried off.

A correspondent writes to the China Mail that there is a rumor in Canton that a disturbance has taken place in Fukien province. It is stated that the rebels are several thousand strong and have captured a city. The intelligent Chinese, he adds, think it will be difficult for foreigners in Canton to escape. A junk containing five merchants, a crew of seven and nine passengers was attacked shortly after dusk by five junks containing armed men on June 15 off the port of Kingho. The assault was resisted by those on board and a fierce battle raged for half an hour, in which two of the passengers were killed. Two were shot and three were stabbed so seriously that they died within a few minutes. The remainder of those on board, seeing no other chance for escape, jumped overboard, and after swimming some distance were rescued by a fishing boat. The pirates seized the junk and sailed away with her.

IN THEIR ELEMENT.

Italians and Poles Cut and Slash Each Other Indiscriminately.

MR. MORRIS, N.Y., July 27.—Saturday about a dozen Italians and Poles employed in the salt mine at Greigsville came here to do some trading, and while waiting for the train at the Lackawanna depot to return home they engaged in a fight on the depot platform. Knives, stones and bottles were freely used. One Italian was stabbed several times and wounded on the head with a stone. His recovery is doubtful. Two other Italians were stabbed, one seriously. Two of the Poles received several cuts on their legs. Except for the interference of Fred Gilmartin the fight would undoubtedly have resulted in several deaths on the spot. The Italians made their escape on the train before the constables arrived, but all were arrested and brought back here to-day except two who were so seriously hurt that they could not be moved.

TO MUZZLE THE PRESS.

New York's Law Prohibiting the Publication of the Details of Executions, on Trial.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Charles O'Connell Hennessy was called to the bar before Recorder Smith this morning to plead to the indictment charging him with misdemeanor. The alleged offense was his publication in the Evening News of which he is city editor of the execution of Slocum and Smiler and the others recently put to death by electricity at Sing Sing. His counsel handed up a demurrer, in which it is claimed that the statute under which the indictment was found is unconstitutional, inasmuch as it restrains the liberty of the press guaranteed to it by the constitution.

Trouble at Middleborough.

MIDDLEBOROUGH, Ky., July 27.—Mayor John M. Brooks, in view of the disturbances which led to the lynching of Rossimus, addressed a letter to Andy Johnson, the well-known leader, asking him to issue an appeal to young men of his name and family in that vicinity, to behave as law abiding citizens. Johnson replied that Gillis Johnson, who was with Rossimus, is his nephew, that he has exerted his influence with Gillis Johnson and the rest of the family to make them peaceable, and will continue to do so. But he adds that the lynching of Rossimus was murder, and asks that the lynchers be brought to justice. Johnson, who himself killed several persons, and was acquitted a few years ago, is now a prominent citizen of Middleborough.

Their Trust Ended.

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—On Thursday the affairs of the great trust formed in 1879 and consisting of A. H. Wilder and E. P. Drake, to which was given the lands granted to the five roads which form the present Omaha railroad, by which trust nearly 350,000 acres of land have been sold and 200,000 people brought into Minnesota, the trustees having handled millions of dollars in its affairs, will come to an end, its work being completed.

The Cardinal Improving.

CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., July 27.—Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Ireland called and spent some time with the President this morning. The Cardinal, who has been here for the past two weeks, will return to Baltimore this afternoon. His health, which was poor when he arrived, has been much benefited by his short stay.

Case of Early Destruction.

GALENA, ILL., July 27.—An explosion occurred in a new mill at the Laffin, Rand Powder Co. at Plattville, Wis., as it was about to be started for the first time this morning. A workman named Lowry was the only one in the mill and he was blown to atoms. The building was wrecked. The concussion awoke the town.

To Hold the Rubber Crop.

NEW YORK, July 27.—A combination of bankers and merchants has been formed in London by the Baron DeGondorff for the holding of the existing stocks of rubber under his control and the issuing of credits for the next crop.

Stabbed to Death While Drunk.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 27.—Frederick Abey, formerly an attendant in the Queen's county insane asylum at Mineola, was stabbed and killed in a drunken quarrel with William Covert last night. Covert was captured this morning.

The world is always interested in the cure of consumption; yet its prevention is far more important. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is guaranteed to cure coughs and colds. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, May 31, and every Sunday thereafter, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Pittsburgh and return at $1.50 and to Washington and return at $1, good returning Sunday only.

AGAINST THE UNION PACIFIC.

The Famous Union Pacific-Rock Island Bridge Case Settled.

OMAHA, NEB., July 27.—Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, arrived in this city this morning and went to the Federal Court room, where he announced his decision in the famous Union Pacific-Rock Island bridge case. The decision is against the Union Pacific and holds that the contract entered into by the Union Pacific company with the Rock Island and Milwaukee roads is valid. Notwithstanding the variety of the interests affected, Judge Brewer holds that the contract was approved by the proper officials.

BIG STOCK YARD COMPANY

With a Million Dollars Capital and Many Privileges, Chartered.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 27.—The Tolleston Stock Yards company, which was incorporated in Hudson county on Saturday, is to have a capital of $1,000,000 divided into 10,000 shares of $100 each. Only twenty of these shares will be issued immediately, and they will be divided four apiece among the five incorporators. It is designed to do a regular stock yard business, purchase lands, erect the necessary enclosures for cattle and other live stock, build docks, aqueducts and railroad terminals within the yards, store house, refrigerating machinery, etc.

Want to Lynch Him.

BERMINGHAM, CONN., July 27.—As Maud Farnham and Jessie Tomlinson, young society girls, one the daughter of Chief of Police Tomlinson, were picnicking in Shelton Park last evening, they were accosted by a "tough" named Thomas Lavelle.

Miss Tomlinson ran, but the fellow seized Miss Farnham around the waist. She fought him wildly, and her cries brought John Farrell to her aid. Lavelle fled, pursued by Farrell, and escaped.

The girls ran home, and soon Chief Tomlinson and a posse of citizens started in pursuit of Lavelle. The latter is still at large. The villagers are indignant enough to lynch him when caught.

Riddled the Lobster Factories.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 27.—A telegram from Bay of Islands, Newfoundland, says: "The commander of Her Majesty's Ship Pelican has riddled the lobster factories here and compelled them to cease operations. The unfortunate people are now left in a state of poverty, being in debt and without means. The French factories, quite a number of which were established this year, are not interfered with."

Drowned in the Canal.

ALLENTOWN, PA., July 27.—George Prost, aged six years, and a Peacock, eight years, were drowned in the Lehigh canal at Catasauqua this morning.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Of Interest to Mothers.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pa., in the treatment of diarrhea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhea very badly. I got some Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it."

A Husband's Mistake.

Husbands too often permit wives, and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could easily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich., and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottles and fine book on Nervous Diseases free at the Logan Drug Co.'s.
